

Brian B. Peacock has been the Director of Orchestral Activities at Garland High School since 1988. In addition to directing the orchestras, he also teaches first year IB Music Theory. Mr. Peacock is a native of Austin, Texas where his earliest musical training included studying the violin and double bass as a student in the University of Texas String Project. After graduation from high school, Mr. Peacock entered the University of Texas and became an instructor in the String Project. He graduated from UT Austin with a Bachelor of Music with Honors in 1977 and worked at schools in the Austin and Brazosport districts before coming to Garland High School. Mr. Peacock remains active as a performer on the double bass through his membership in the Lewisville Lake Symphony and the Northeast Texas Symphony Orchestra. He also serves as Music Director for the Town North Presbyterian Church (PCA) in Richardson. He and his wife, Judy, and family live in northeast Garland.

